Personal

Mrs. William Hodges Mann gave a luncheon yesterday afternoon from 4 to 5 o'clock in the Executive Mansion, in honor of the wives and daughters of the members of the General Assembly, now in session here.
Mrs. Mann received with Mrs. J. Taylor Hillyson and Mrs. George B. Keckel, of the Richmond county, in the main drawing-room of the mansion. This room was decorated with pink and white flowers, and the orchestra, which played during the afternoon, was screened by palms at one end of the drawing-room. Mrs. Mann's guests were clothed in gold, embroidered in a rose design, and made with an overlaid of black lace. She carried American Beauty roses. Mrs. Hillyson wore gray crepe de chine, embroidered in silver, and Mrs. Keckel wore a gown of gray broadcloth and carried pink roses.

Mrs. Herbert Mann and Mrs. Childs Ferrell assisted in the dining-room, where the table was set with a silver vase of pink and white tulips and candles shaded in silver and pink.
Palms and jonquills decorated the hall of the mansion.

A number of dinners will be given at the Country Club to-night. An orchestra will play during dinner and for the hop following. The tables will be decorated with tulips. Misses Della and Fanny Beverley, of Essex county, who are visiting relatives in Richmond, will be guests of honor at a luncheon given at the clubhouse today. Covers will be laid for eight guests.

Newport News Wedding.

A pretty marriage was celebrated Thursday at 4:30 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Henry Wilson, 225 Twenty-sixth Street, Newport News, when their daughter, Myra, became the bride of William Elmer Walker, of Cambridge, Md. The ceremony was performed by an uncle of the bride, Rev. J. H. Wilson, of Laurel, Del.

The bride wore a traveling suit of blue, with hat and gloves, and carried a copy of the marriage vow. The bride's sister, Miss Elizabeth Wilson, was the only attendant, and wore a gown of light blue crepe de chine and a black picture hat. Mrs. Walker, wife of Richmond, played the wedding march and "O Promise Me" during the ceremony.

The house was decorated for the occasion with pink carnations, palms and flowers, and following the ceremony an informal reception was held. Misses Hose, Rosemon, Edna Rose, and Edna Wilson served in the dining-room.

Mr. and Mrs. Walker left immediately for New York, and later will go to Cambridge, Md., where they will make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson entertained at a charming pre-nuptial luncheon at 1 o'clock in honor of the bride party.
The table was beautifully arranged with a centerpiece of pink carnations.
The luncheon guests were Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Wilson and son, Edward Wilson, of Norfolk; Miss Ada Walker, of Sharpsburg, Md.; Mrs. Walter Wynne, of Richmond; Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Furness, of Phoebus; Misses Edna Rose, Rose Rosemon, Elizabeth Wilson and Ellie Wilson; B. H. Wilson, of Philadelphia, and William and Edwin Wilson.

Ten Room Hostesses.

Hostesses at the tea room in the palm garden of the Jefferson Hotel this afternoon will be Mrs. Godwin Boykin and Miss Ella Williams Buck, assisted by a number of girls. Tea will be served from 4 to 5 o'clock, and the tables will be decorated with yellow tulips.

Colonial Tea.

Miss Blanche Cottrell entertained a number of her friends at a colonial tea Thursday evening. Music and games amused the guests, and supper was served later in the evening. The improvement was made with palms and ferns, and red and white flowers were used on the table. Hatters, cherry trees and American flags were souvenirs of the affair for the guests. These present were Misses Virginia Whitfield, Grace Nugent, Edna Sprengle, Annis Steinbrecher, Myrtle Jackson, Thea Chewning, Lillian Hickey, Regina Rose, Arthur and Wilbur Hayes, Claude Guthrie, Leonard Browning, John Cottrell, Frank and Hugh Palmer, Thoro-

Bridgetown, Va., February 23.—Johnson's Church, near Bridgetown, was the scene of a very pretty marriage on Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, when Miss Mary Ellen Wilkins became the bride of Edward Julian Pitt-cher. The ceremony was performed by the bride's father, Rev. Charles Moss. The church was decorated with cut flowers, potted plants, holly and mistletoe. The bride was attended by Miss Flora Leah Pittcher, of Cape Charles. As the bride entered the church Mrs. John H. Roberts sang "Because You Love Me." The bride entered the church with her maid of honor, Miss Susie Nottingham. She was gown in a black cut suit and carried pink carnations. The bride was handsomely gowned in a traveling suit of blue broadcloth. She carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and lilies. The wedding march was played by the bride's father, Rev. Charles Moss, and the bride entered with his best man, E. Bernard Tankard, of Franktown. The wedding was performed by Rev. Charles Moss, of Farmville. The ceremony was attended by a large number of guests.
The reception was held at the home of the bride, where a luncheon was served.
After an extended tour North they will be at home after March 10 at Oakdale.
